

Men of Color to Arms!

Story of the 54th Massachusetts Regiment

Learn about the significant & powerful role of African American soldiers in the Civil War. Guest presentation by Park Ranger Ryan McNabb of Boston African American NHS followed by a musical interlude and blank firing of Civil War Muskets on the Armory's historic grounds with Living Historians from the Peter Brace Brigade.

Sunday, February 16, 2014

11:30 am Ranger Presentation, 1:00 pm Blank Firing
Songs from the Soul by Camp Followers of the Peter Brace Brigade

Springfield Armory National Historic Site
One Armory Square (State & Federal Streets) Springfield, MA 01105

For Information: (413) 734-8551 www.nps.gov/spar

Co-sponsored by:

