

Screen, Radio Stars Coming

A bright galaxy of stars from the musical comedy, radio and movie field is promised for the State of Israel benefit show to be given Sunday in the Auditorium.

Fred Finklehoff, producer, playwright, Hollywood executive and formerly a Springfield resident, yesterday phoned in some additional headliners to be added to the list of entertainers already booked.

The entire troop is to leave the Grand Central station in a private car at 12.30 and will arrive at the Union Station at 3.48 p.m., daylight saving time. The group will be escorted to Hotel Kimball and then at 4 o'clock will go into rehearsal.

At 6.30 the troop will attend a reception given by the Level Club with Fred Finklehoff's family acting as hosts at the Kimball. The show in the Auditorium will start at 8.
