The following are general steps in the hiring process for Municipal Police Officer positions:

1. Police Department contacts Civil Service Unit for list of eligible candidates.
2. Based on number of vacancies the Civil Service Unit releases a group of candidates to the Police Department for consideration. All parties are contacted by email.
3. Police Department begins the hiring process which may include the following;
 - a. Candidate fills out extensive employment packet
 - b. Background investigation
 - c. Interview

Once a candidate receives a conditional offer, the following steps are for all candidates;

- a. Medical exam
- b. Initial-Hire Physical Abilities Test (PAT)

Police Departments send candidates to the Police Academy for further training. Please contact those departments you are interested in for more information.
