We whose names are underwritten being by Gods providence engaged together to make a plantation at and over against Agam upon Connecticut, doe mutually agree to certayne articles and orders to be observed and kept by us and by our successors, except meet and every of us for our selves and in our own selves shall thinke meet upon better reasons to alter our plant resolutions:

- 1^{ly} we intend by Gods grace to have as soon as we can with all convenient speed to send some Godly and faithful minister with whom we purpose to join in Church Covenant to walke in all the ways of Christ.
- 2^{ly} we intend that our towne shall be composed of forty familyes or if we thinke meete alter to alter or purpose yet not to exceede the number of fifty familyes, rich and poore.
- 3^{ly} That every inhabitant shall have a convenient portion for a house lot as we shall see meete for every ones quality and estate.
- 4^{ly} That every one that hath a house lot shall have a portion of the Coropasture to ye North of Endbrook lying Northward from the towne: and also that every one shall have a share of the halsoke marsh over against his lot if it bee to be had, and every one to have his proportionable share of all the woodland.
- 5^{ly} That every one shall have a share of the meadow or planting ground over against them as nigh as may be on Agam side.
- 6^{ly} That the longe meadow called Malackick lying in the way to Dorchester shall be distributed to every man as we shall thinke meete except we shall find other convenience for some for their milch cattayle and other cattayle also.
- 7^{ly} That the onidow and pasture called Xayas toward Patucket on ye side of Agam lying about seven mile above in the River shall be distributed to every man or six at most of 10 that are likeliest to improve it in tillage and pasture, thereby to save the same from greater spoyle, that for them may be the better way for them that have taken stock as we shall see meet, and it is agreed that Matthew Smith shall have so much layd out together at the further end of this provision as above sayd in former orders and this was altered with consent before ye were set to it.

87 That all rates that shall arise upon the Towne shall be layd upon Land according to every ones proportion after for aker of house lott and after for aker of middow both alike on this side and both alike on the other side and for farms that shall lye fur: there off a lile proportion as rose shall after agree: Except those shall agree for more to remit one halfe of the rate from land to other estate:

97 That whereas Mr. William Pyncheon, Ichero Burr and Henry Smith have constantly continued to psecute this Plantation when others fell off for feare of the difficultys, and continued to psecute the same at greate charges and at greate personall adden: tues: therefore it is mutually agreed that forty: forty acres of middow lying on the South of Endbrooke vnder a hill side shall belonge to the 1st partyes for ever from all charges for ever: that is to say twenty acres to Mr. William Pyncheon and his heires & assigns for ever, and ten Acres to Ichero Burr, and ten acres to Henry Smith and to therr heires and assigns for ever: which 40 acres is not disposed to them as any allotments of towne lands, but they are to have therr accommodations in all other places notwithstanding.

107 That wheras a house was built at a comon charge which cost 6^l. and alsoe the Indurants demanded a greate some to buye therr right in the 1st lands and alsoe a greate shalloppe which was requisite for the first plantinge: the value of which engagements is to be borne by each inhabitant at therr first entrance as they shall be rated by us, till the 1st disbursements shall be satisfied: or else in case the 1st house and boats be not for satisfied for, then for much middow to be sett out about the 1st house as may counterpoise the sayd extraordinary charges.

117 It is agreed that no man except Mr. William Pyncheon shall have above 10 acres for his house lott

Cancelled

12th

It is also agreed that if any man fell any timber out of his lot in any common ground, if he let it lie above three months before he work it out, it shall be lawfull for any other man to take it that hath spent of it.

It is agreed that Mr. William Lyncheon shall have thirty whereas there are two Cove pastures the one lying toward Dorchester, and the other Northward from End brooke. It is agreed that both these pastures shall not be fed at once, but that they shall be ordered by the vs in the disposing of it for huns and fialons till it be letted out and fed in severalls.

May 16th 1636.

It is agreed that after this day we shall observe this rule about dividing of plantinge ground and middons in all plantinge ground to regard chiefly persons who are most apt to till such ground: and in all middons and pastures to regard chiefly cattell and estate, because estate is like to be imployed in cattell, and such ground is aptest for theye use: and yet we agree that none person that is master of a lot though he have not cattayle shall have else then three acres of middon ground: and none that have cornes, steeves or yearles shall have more then a piece and all horses not less then fourer acres and this order in dividing middons by cattell to take place the last of May next: for that all cattayle that then appeare, and all estate that shall then truly appeare at 20 a Cove shall have this portion in the middons on Aquanaw fide, and in the longe middons Masack fide, and in the other longe middons called Nagas, and in the pastures at the North end of the Towne called End.

April the first 1647. By J^r Townshin.

It is ordered that all Swine that any person shall keep about his house or other any common ground belonging to the Plantation and not under the hand or custody of a keeper; shall be sufficiently yoked and ringed, according to the age and bigness of the Swine: And in case any Swine that are above the age of six months shall be found in the streets or about any of common fences of the corn fields without yoke & rings.
It shall be lawfull for any person for findinge them, to drive them to the pound (such may be any mans private yard or out house in ye present district of a common pound) or elsewhere as he shall thinke fittest of the said Swine notices of his impoundinge them with in 24 hours after it is found who shall be liable to pay to the party that hath for impounded same 6d for every Swine before they be set at liberty. But if any Swine shall be found in corn or yoked or ringed, then ye owners of the said Swine shall be liable to pay any damages done by them, as 2 indifferent men shall judge it to be, besides the 6d for every head for impoundinge them. And in case any shall neglect to redeeme his Swine in 24 hours after he hath warninge of thye impoundinge. It shall be lawfull for the party that hath impounded them to take two neighbours to apprise one or more of the said Swine, & to sell it or them, satisfyinge himselfe of the damages done in his corn, as the 2 indifferent men shall judge it to be, as also for the impoundinge of the Swine, and to returne the same to the owner.

This order to take force from the 20th of April next. 1647.
