

Come celebrate the 10th anniversary of MassMutual's LifeBridgeSM Free Life Insurance Program

And if eligible, apply for free coverage.

Protect Your Child's Education At No Cost To You

For those who qualify, LifeBridge offers free life insurance coverage for the benefit of your children's education.

The Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual) is offering free life insurance to cover an insured parent or legal guardian for a period of 10 years. Under the LifeBridge program, if the parent or guardian passes away during the 10 years of coverage, $50,000 will be paid to a trust administered by the MassMutual Trust Co., FSB, to cover the educational expenses of their eligible children. MassMutual pays the premiums for you.

There is no cost to you or your children.

Refreshments will be served.

Who is eligible to apply?

Individuals are eligible to apply if they are:

- Between the ages of 19 and 42
- The parent or legal guardian of one or more dependent children under age 18
- A permanent, legal resident of the United States
- Currently employed full or part time with a total family income not less than $10,000 or more than $40,000 annually
- In good health, as determined by MassMutual's underwriting guidelines

Bring with you:

1. A copy of your last tax return form – 1040 or 1040A (used to confirm your income).
2. Your last pay stub (used to confirm you are currently working).
3. The Social Security numbers of your children/dependents under the age of 18.
4. Proper identification (i.e. driver's license, green card, photo ID).
