

THE CITY OF SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

MAYOR DOMENIC J. SARNO

HOME OF THE BASKETBALL HALL OF FAME

City of Springfield Splash Pads

Park splash pads are already turned on in Springfield due to an earlier heat wave. No pool pass or ID is needed for splash pad use. They are available at the following park locations:

- Van Horn Park
- Emily Bill Park
- Mary Troy Park
- Walsh Park
- Marshal Roy Park
- Myrtle Street Park
- Balliet Park
- Nathan Bill Park
- Forest Park
- Emerson Wright Park
- Ruth Elizabeth Park
- Barrows Park
- Adams Park
- Rebecca Johnson Park
- Magazine Park
- Kennefick Park
- Jamie Ulloa Park
- Pynchon Plaza
- Riverfront Park

PBRM Director Tom Ashe stated, "We are very proud of our beautiful parks and love to see families utilizing splash pads and pools during the summer. I am forever grateful to our dedicated Parks staff who make these programs possible. Make sure to check our website for information about our Summer Concerts in the Park, Movies in the Park, our Summer Aquatics Program, and other summer activities. On behalf of the Parks Department, we wish everyone a wonderful, safe, and healthy summer."

