Mayor Sarno Calls for Unification Prayer Vigil on Front Steps of City Hall

Who: Mayor Domenic J. Sarno, Police Commissioner John Barbierbi, Clergy

What: Prayer vigil and moment of silence

When: Friday, July 8, 2016 at 12:00 p.m.

Where: Front steps of City Hall, 36 Court Street, Springfield, MA 01103

Springfield, MA – Mayor Domenic J. Sarno calls for a unification prayer vigil today on the City Hall steps at 12:00 p.m. Residents, clergy, police and lawmakers are invited to attend the vigil and share in a moment of silence, thought and reflection in light of the tragic loss of life in Dallas, TX, Falcon Heights, MN, and Baton Rouge, LA.

Mayor Sarno is calling for the residents of Springfield and surrounding communities to unify in the spirit of mutual respect and tolerance, and stand together collectively as one against hate.
