Mayor Sarno and Family Continue to Promote Springfield Restaurant Week

Springfield, MA- The 2nd Annual Springfield Restaurant Week kicks off today and will run through Sunday, May 1. During this week-long event presented by the Springfield Business Improvement District, the community is invited to experience the wide array of exceptional dining options available in the City of Springfield. Patrons will be able to dine at participating restaurants throughout the city and select from special prix-fixe menu items for $20.16.

Mayor Domenic J. Sarno stated, "My family and I will be patronizing Theodore's tonight and we were just at Family Pizza earlier this week too. Hope to see many of you coming into Springfield to patronize our variety of fine restaurants."
