

THE CITY OF SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

MAYOR DOMENIC J. SARNO

HOME OF THE BASKETBALL HALL OF FAME

Proclamation

Whereas,

National Day of Prayer was established in 1952 by the United States Congress and has become a treasured part of our nation's heritage of faith. Each year on the first Thursday in May, we turn to prayer for strength, healing, guidance, and hope; and

Whereas,

Each American has the freedom to worship and pray as they desire. As Americans we share a legacy of faith that sustains and inspires us, along with our heritage of religious liberty; and

Whereas,

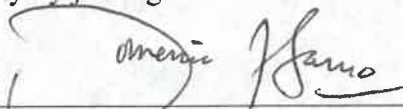

This day provides all Springfield residents the opportunity to join together in prayer to give thanks for our blessings, pray for healing and strength as we continue to fight and defeat this COVID-19 coronavirus, and ask God to guide our leaders and to bring peace, healing, hope, and prosperity to our City.

Therefore, I, Domenic J. Sarno, Mayor of the City of Springfield, do hereby proclaim

Thursday, May 6, 2021

"National Day of Prayer"

in the City of Springfield, and I strongly encourage all our citizens to join in observing this day by joining with loved ones in prayer.

DOMENIC J. SARNO, MAYOR

*A little prayer never hurt anyone of us — used more of it! " Good health,
Thank you & continued success
Astoria from Feliciano"
God bless.*
